WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT IT

Expressions of Opinion on Sewerage Extension.

MOST OPINIONS IN FAVOR OF IT.

If the Extension is to be General and Some if It is to be in Special Directions Only.

With a view to ascertaining what the citizens thought of the question of sewerage extension a Telegram man this morning made a canvass of a portion of the city and asked of each man an expression of opinion. It was noticeable that most of those who favored extension spoke out at once, while some of those who did not refused to be quoted.

Some few reserved their opinion saying they had not had sufficient time to consider it.

The vast majority of those seen were heartily in favor of it as a general proposition:

Dr. Wyche, dentist: I am right in for it, tooth and toe nail.

H. C. Berger, tobacconist: I think it a capital scheme.

John M. Dick, Steam Laundry: I am in favor of it.

E. P. Wharton, of Southern Stock Mutual Insurance Company: I am in favor of a general extension of the sewerage system economically put in.

General Barringer, lawyer: I am in favor of general extension of the system. As a growing city of 10,000 people we are bound to have it.

W. H. Rees, of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud: I am in favor of such an extension as will be of general benefit.

C. E. Holton, druggist: I am in favor of the extension. We ought to have a good sewerage system.

M. R. Farrar, jeweler: I am in favor of it if we are in a position to extend it without endangering our financial welfare as a city.

Howard Gardner, druggist: I am in favor of a good sewerage system; let it go at that.

Dred Peacock, of Greensboro Female college: I am in favor of it by all means.

Gaston W. Ward, druggist: It is a thing the town needs, and as such I favor it, though it would not effect me personally.

L. B. Lindau, grocer: I am in favor of it.

Julius Cone, Merchants Grocery Company: Certainly, extend it by all means.

W. L. Grissom, minister; By all means let us have the extension.

C. C. Johnson, of Johnson & Dorsett: I am in favor of it as a general extension. Under the present system some of us pay for what we do not get.

H. W. Wharton, of Wharton Bros. book store: I am in favor of general extension if it does not involve an increase of the tax rate.

W. B. Bogart, of the Bank of Guilford: I want it bad and want it on my street, too.

A. L. Brooks, Lawyer: I am absolutely and unqualifiedly in favor of it.

J. N. Wilson, Lawyer: I would be glad to see a complete system of sewerage for the city and am willing to vote for a bond issue for that purpose but have not examined the law sufficiently to see whether a special act of the legislature would be required.

B. C. Sharp, lawyer: Extend it on every street. Sewerage is the first necessity of the city.

R. G. Vaughn, Piedmont Bank: I am in favor of it and think every town the size of Greensboro should be well drained.

J. M. Walker, Piedmont Bank: I would like to see the sewerage regardless of cost. Of course I want it at as little cost as possible. It is one of the greatest necessities of the town.

E. M. Caldcleugh, crockery: The city should have it. The sanitary wellfare requires it. All well regulated cities should have complete sewerage systems.

J. M. Hendrix, of J. M. Hendrix & Co: If we can have a complete system I am in favor of it but I don't think the city can afford that.

Dr. J. T. J. Battle: I don't think there is any question about it. It would be a very wise move.

W. G. Mebane, of W. G. Mebane & Co.: I think it a good thing and am strongly in favor of it. It is only a question of time when Greensboro must have a sewerage system and I see no use in waiting.

Dr. E. L. Stamey: The sewerage should be extended by all means. The health, convenience, and reputation depend upon it.

W. R. Rankin, Fishblate-Katz-Rankin Co.: I have just completed a nice residence on West Market street and am strongly in favor of it.

E. R. Fishblate, of Fishblate-Katz-Rankin Co.: The sewerage should be extended throughout the city.

O. C. Wysong: More and better sewerage is badly needed.

T. D. Sherwood, with Cox-Ferree Dry Goods Co.: I am strongly in favor of it.

C. M. Vanstory, of C. M. Vanstory & Co.: I think it should be extended and the sooner the better.

S. S. Brown, of Sample Brown Mercantile Co.: It should be extended by all means.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Jan. 17, '98.

We are glad to see that the gates for the railroad crossing on Main street have come and we hope to see them in use before many days.

There was a mistake in Saturday's paper as to the schedule on the Asheboro railroad. The train that has been coming up in the evening at seven o'clock will arrive hereafter at 6:10 p. m.

W. H. Reyoum, superintendent of the Southern Chair Co., returned yesterday from Baltimore where he has in the interest of the Southern.

Joe Jackson who was shot by John Duckworth left this morning for Baltimore to have the X rays put on him to find the ball, and have it taken out.

The members of the Epworth League will give a reception next Wednesday night at the Methodist Episcopal church. All of the members of that church are invited.

The racket store of A. V. Sapp was broken into last night about one o'clock. They got in by throwing a five pound rock through the glass in the door. They secured jewelry, shoes, and pocket knives. There is no clue to the robbers. The authorities wired for blood hounds from Charlotte but could not secure them.

KICKS.

Matters That Citizens Say Need Attention.

Citizens living on Ashe street claim that work on that street is badly needed. One of them declared this morning that it was worse than the roads of Rockingham county, which he seemed to think the last degree of the comparison. He said the improvement needed would cost comparatively little.

Another citizen said that the ditch running by the market place was in need of attention. That three or four pieces of sewer pipe would fix it alright and that it should be done at once. These things are mentioned because the authorities are always glad to hear of them.

Evangelist Lee at Orlando.

The Orlando Florida Reporter says:—Mr. Lee's tent meetings are progressing with larger attendance and deepening interest.

Many professed christians are awakening to a sense of their duty, many unregenerate are asking an interest in the prayers of God's people and every service is characterized by conversions.

Had It Framed.

Col. B. B. Bouldin has had the order of General Lee, found among some old papers, as told in Saturday's Telegram, framed in order to preserve it the better. He has written to Adjutant Brown, of Baltimore, who is said to have taken the original from Gen. Lee's dictation.

When his place of business was not opened this morning an investigation was made and the fact disclosed that the family had been fatally shot and then the gas had been turned on to make death doubly sure. He had complained recently of losing money. He had only had the store for two weeks and it was not known from whence he came.

Burned.

The Telegram man was called on to witness the burning of the last year's stock of seed, by the enterprising drug firm of Richardson & Fariss. The first of each year it is the custom of this firm to destroy all seed carried over from the last year. This is done in order to prevent their patrons from securing any but the very freshest seed. Over 2,500 packages were destroyed.

The Wang Opera Co. Coming.

"Wang" a company of 50 people, the first opera company here for more than ten years is coming. We will soon hear the clash of cymbals, beat of drums, blare of trumpets and with all the scenic adjuncts, brilliant costumes, pretty girls and catchy music. The comic opera "Wang" will be seen here for the first time on January 29th at the Academy of Music.

More Scared than Hurt.

TROUBLE AT NEW BEDFORD

The Strikers Begin Their Usual Tactics

A SUPERINTENDENT IS STONED

Striking Laundrymen in New York Claim That They Will Shortly Win--Lynchers Indicted.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Bedford, Jan. 17—The strikers began disorder here this morning. Superintendent Knowles of the Asushet Mills was stoned by a crowd of nearly 1000 strikers. He is one of the most unpopular men in the city. He made a speech at the gate of one of the mills and tried to persuade some of the strikers to return to work when he was roughly handled by the men. About fifty weak-kneed mill hands, mostly French and Polish, attempted to resume work, but were prevented by the strikers who are in an angry mood. Serious trouble is now anticipated.

LAUNDRYMEN HOPEFUL.

New York, Jan. 17—Manifestations of satisfaction are much in evedence here today at the headquarters of the striking laundry workers. It is expected that the contractors will yield to the demands for higher wages and shorter hours before the week is ended.

LYCHERS INDICTED.

Genoa, Nev., Jan. 17—Indictments will be found against the lynchers of Adam Uber.

COTTON MILLERS STRIKE.

And Ten Thousand Men are Idle Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Bedford, Jrn. 17.—Ten thousand mill hands are idle today because of the strike against the ten per cent. reduction in wages.

Operatives from other cities will help them to maintain the strike. The mill owners are saying little but are confident that their money will bring them victory. There are no indications of violence.

By Fire and Water.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Eight firms, the stocks of which are valued at a half million dollars, sustained a heavy loss by fire this morning. The building was at Market and Quincy streets and was occupied by clothing firms. The largest loss was on account of water.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 17—James E. Berri, who has long been famous as perhaps the only millionaire tramp on the continent, died here this morning at the New Richmond hotel. A broken leg, rheumatism and alcoholism were the combined cause of his death.

Mysteriously Shot.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

The middle-of-the-roaders in session at St. Louis are manifestly not such safe financiers as their Ohio compatriots.

The persistency with which the Afridis refuse to remain conquered must be as annoying to the Britishers as their good marksmanship.

If matters in the far east have been so amicably settled it is not quite apparent why the German warships should continue their journey thither.

Our sympathies were all with Mr. McKisson but it does not tend to foster our pride in him to hear him declaring he could if he had only wished.

Thus far the "rejoicing citizens" who were to make the welkin ring according to Mr. McKinley's dispatch to Mr. Hanna have been wonderfully quiet in their hallelujahs.

If the Honorable David B. Hill had taken the public into his confidence regarding his ballot a little earlier he would not have been open to the accusation rushing hastily into print.

The middle of January and no ice and snow yet. Just think of it.—Danville Register.

Who, by taking thought, can add snow to his sidewalk this winter or ice to his julep next summer?

And now a St. Louis man had his stomach removed and lives. It only remains for the medical fraternity to remove the tongue of a Kansas populist without fatal results and the laity will admit the final and crowning triumph of the profession.

We are sorry for New York. The yellow journals, Dr. Parkhurst, Richard Croker, Tammany Hall and Tucker-Booth it has with it always and now, that its cup of happiness may trickle down the sides, comes "General" Booth to visit and visitate, bringing with him the odor and the ullulation of the cockney salvationist. Hard, indeed, is the fate of the metropolis.

What in the name of all the stars at once has become of the Honorable Benjamin Tillman and his pitchfork? Can it be that some cold and slimy octopus of a combine has wrapped him in its tentacles and cut off his sweet song forever more? Will the gauntlet of that vociferous warrior never more fall in sullen defiance at, upon or near the toe of a plutocrat? In the name of Neptune's trident where is Tillman's pitchfork?

People of this section of the country have never been worshipers at the shrine of the Honorable David Bennett Hill, but in the contest between him and Richard Croker for the leadership of the New York democracy he will have the good wishes of most. He may have sulked in his tent in the last campaign and refused to fight for the ticket, but he is an American with that sense of responsibility and love of honor that never quite deserts the type. He has stood in the chief forum without disgracing his constituents or his party. He is a man of some parts. He is not a crass and ignorant boodler, a foreign interloper with the odor of English stables in his clothes and West End ideas of morals. May he land with power and unction on the political solar plexus of the beefy and horsey boodler, the Hon. Richard Croker, of peat bog antecedents.

John Gifford, of Princeton, N. J., a farmer and editor, who well is acquaint-with real estate values there, says that Mr. Cleveland's coming has increased the value of real estate 50 per cent. The reason of this is that Mr. Cleveland's coming, together with several New York millionaires, has turned the attention of the wealthy class to Princeton as a desirable place of residence which has sent values up with a bound.—Exchange.

Ah, there you have it. There is a wide difference of opinion as to Mr. Cleveland's ability as a statesman and his manner of filling the Presidential chair is mooted; there be those even who sneer at his ability to hook the finny tribe and scoff at the number of ducks in his game bag; some go the lengths of doubting whether he is a worthy successor to Dr. M'Cosh, but from Cape Cod to the Golden Gate none doubts his prowess as an appreciator of real estate. Values cling to him like iron filings to a magnet. He should lease himself to a realty syndicate afresh.

General News in a Nutshell.

The deaths from the plague at Bombay during the past week numbered 450. There were 1,307 deaths during the same period from all causes.

The estate of the late George M. Pullman, from an inventory filed in court at Chicago, was estimated to include $8,000,000 in stocks and bonds, and $2,000,000 in real estate.

Two priests arrested by the Chinese authorities in connection with the alleged fraudulent sale to Russia of land in the Klu-Klang mountains, have died as a rasult of tortures. Three more are in prison and unless speedily helped will meet with a similar fate.

John Brown, of Wichita, Kansas, a famous cake walkist, was shown an account of the Trainer Park cake walk in which W. K. Vanderbilt was said to have come off the prize winner, and after reading it wrote Mr. Vanderbilt a challenge to a cake walk contest in Wichita any time this winter for $500 a side. Mr. Vanderbilt's acceptance has not yet been received.

Miss Hsu, of Soochow, recently married a red flower vase as a substitute for her betrothed, who died before the wedding day. He was a son of Lu Jen Hsiang, Vice Chancellor of the Imperial Academy of Peking. The young woman having determined to marry no one else, adopted this means to enter her betrothed's family and so be treated as a widow. The people of Soochow are talking of building a stone arch to commemorate Miss Hsu's virtues.

Gray Gables Burglarized.

Boston, Jan. 15.—A special to The Globe from Buzzards Bay says: Graygables, the summer home of ex-President Cleveland, has been visited by burglars, who ransacked the house from attic to cellar and made good their escape without leaving the slightest clue to their identity. When the burglary occurred is quite as much of a mystery as is the identity of those who were concerned in it. Brad Wright, who has charge of the Cleveland estate, made the discovery several days ago and he immediately reported the facts to the town officials and notified Mr. Cleveland. The amount of plunder which the crooks took with them cannot be known until Mr. Cleveland has been heard from.

North Carolina Nominations.

Washington, Jan. 15—The following nominations have been confirmed by the Senate.

Postmasters—J. F. Dobson, Goldsboro; J. W. Mullen, Charlotte; D. C. Pearson, Salisbury; G. W. Reed, Biltmore; P. H. Lybrook, Winston; J. J. Morton, Tarboro; W. P. Ormsby Salem.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

ANTHONY HOPE IS MUM.

Won't Talk About Us to Us After Three Months Among Us.

Anthony Hope Hawkins, who sails for England today on the Umbria, after a three months' visit to America, intends evidently to say whatever he may have to say of the United States and their people to his friends at home or over the signature of Anthony Hope. He has given more than eighty lectures or readings in various parts of this country and Canada, has met many people in the course of business, and has been entertained by some well known men, but he is indisposed to tell before he goes of the impressions he received or to relate incidents of his tour. Fearful of being misunderstood, as he says, or that his words in the newspapers would be misconstrued, he intends to take his ideas away with him. He got back to New York yesterday afternoon from New Haven, where he had given his last reading. He could only say that he had had a pleasant time here, and, he thought he might add, a gratifying success. He had enjoyed his entertainment and the people he had met very much. But beyond that he felt that he could really say nothing, and was no more willing to tell his impressions of America than though his "opinion" of the country had been asked him on his arrival here in the middle of last October.—N. Y. Sun.

CLEO'S THRIFTY MOTHER.

Washed and Ironed the Dancer's Clothes and Walked Miles For Twenty Cents.

The parsimony of foreign celebrities who come to this country has been frequently amusing to Americans. There have been some very striking instances of it in recent years, but the mother of Mlle. Cleo de Merode seems to have carried off the palm in this respect. Salvini, it is said, was so penurious that he bought a sandwich on the street for 5 cents rather than pay for his supper at a hotel, and one of the stories told about him on his last visit to this country was that once in Philadelphia he gave the porter of a hotel a penny and told him to buy him three tacks. The actor had discovered that his trunk was damaged, and he wanted to repair it himself.

Tamaqua was notorious here for his stinginess. It was said that he sold the tickets sent to him in view of his artist's privilege and hired his own brother as a valet because he could be got at a cheap figure. Then he used to make him roll his trunks around on a truck at the foreign custom houses rather than pay the porters a fee for the work. Herr Van Biene marked as a curiosity and sent back to England a hotel bill of fare on which he had marked the price, $1.50, for a tenderloin steak as one of the wonders of an extravagant and youthful country. It may have been nothing more than good business judgment which prompted Mlle. Calve to look for a business manager while she was here and then express the greatest astonishment that such an assistant of the most capable kind could not be hired for $10 a week.

These are some of the stories told about the highly paid foreigners who come to exhibit themselves here. But Cleo's mother holds the record. It is said that she astonished the servants at the Imperial hotel by washing her daughter's clothes in the bathtub and ironing them herself. On the day before they returned to Europe the ballerina and her mother were seen on lower Broadway. They had gone down to one of the exchange offices in order to get $100 in French money. It was raining. An acquaintance met the two just as they were coming out of the office.

"Why, that wretch inside," exclaimed the mother indignantly, "wants to give me only 517 francs for $100." Then Mme. la Mere de Cleo de Merode put up her umbrella with a mighty emphasis and stepped out on to the sidewalk. "Why, a man offered me 518 up town. But I thought I could get 520 down here. Now we shall have to walk up town, for otherwise there will be no profit left for us." Then Cleo and her mother started to trudge up town. The dancer received $9,000 for her appearances here.—New York Sun.

The Link to be Built.

Hickory, Jan. 15.—President G. W. F. Harper and Directors Martin and Brice met here today as the committee to award the contract for building the link of the Carolina & Northwestern Narrow Gauge Railroad from here to Newton, ten miles. Ten bids were submitted. The contract for grading was given to J. R. Erwin & Co., of Morganton. Work will begin at once, and the link will be finished within five months. The road will run parallel to the line of the Western North Carolina, on which the Carolina & Northwestern now has a third rail. This has been in contemplation for many years, and it seems chiefly due to Director Martin's energy that the bargain has been clinched.—Charlotte Observer.

Cut Down the Award.

Judge Robinson, in the case of Brooks, receiver of Bain Building Co., vs. St. Andrews P. E. church, has cut down the award of the jury from $849, or thereabout, to $400. Counsel for plaintiff agreed to th[illegible]ction as Judge Robinson warn[illegible] that otherwise he would set [illegible] verdict aside and order a new trial.

SONG OF THE BEGGAR MAID.

The moon is a king with a silver crown
In the blue, blue sky.
Happy go lucky and low he down,
Favored by fortune's every frown,
Beggarly maid am I; beggarly maid am I.

What is his wand with the starry tip?
A pale moonbeam.
He lays it gently upon my lip.
Kings may quarrel and kingdoms slip.
Happy I lie and dream; happy I lie and dream.

Here I lie through the dear, dear night.
May it linger long!
Every goblin and every sprite,
Happy go heavy and happy go light,
Sings in my dreamland song, sings in my dreamland song.

Kings may quarrrel and kings may groan
With a long, long sigh.
Queens may languish and make their moan.
Beggarly maiden and all alone,
Happiest queen am I, happiest queen am I.

THE MINISTER'S STORY.

He Takes a Perilous Ride and the Groom Shows Appreciation.

Rev. Dr. Britt of Omaha, who officiates as editor of The Veteran, dearly loves a good story and can tell one as well as listen to one. Dr. Britt was for years a leading minister in the Methodist church, but resigned on account of ill health. He served in the Union army for four years and earned the right to wear a badge of the Grand Army of the Republic, and his service in the army makes him peculiarly fitted for his position of editor of the Grand Army organ of the department of Nebraska.

A few days ago Dr. Britt was telling of one of his ministerial experiences. It occurred years ago in Illinois.

On the coldest night in the winter of 1878 Dr. Britt retired to bed in a well warmed bedchamber and prepared to sleep the sleep of the just. Just as he was dreaming of a donation party that did not eat more than it left he was aroused by a knock at the front door. When he answered the knock, a man stepped into the room and shook the snow from his coat.

"I want you to go out near Mott's schoolhouse and marry a couple," said the stranger.

Mott's schoolhouse was nine miles from town, and Dr. Britt naturally objected to traveling that distance through a blizzard.

"Why not wait until morning?" queried the doctor.

"It can't be did, parson," said the stranger. "The man has got to start for South America in the morning an wants to take a wife with him. His girl has steadily refused him up till three hours ago, an as he's got to start tomorrow he wants to marry her an take her along."

Dr. Britt had been married just long enough to appreciate the situation, and finally consented to go. He wrapped himself up as warmly as possible and took his place on the spring seat of the lumber wagon that was to convey him to the bridal scene. It was the coldest ride he had ever experienced and reminded him of that icy night before the Sunday that Donelson surrendered. But the home of the bride to be was finally reached. A few neighbors were gathered, and as soon as the preacher was thawed out he performed the marriage ceremony.

The next morning the bride and groom started for South America and rode to the railroad station in a lumber wagon with Dr. Britt. The doctor went to the station with them, and just before the train departed the groom called him to one side and thrust a sealed envelope into his hand.

Dr. Britt thrust the envelope into his pocket and hastened home. Calling Mrs. Britt into his study, he opened the envelope to gaze upon his fee.

The envelope contained a $1 bill and a 50 cent shinplaster.—Omaha World-Herald.

His Income.

James Payn tells of a well known singer many years ago who in the pride of his heart greatly exaggerated to the tax collector his own assessment. "The fact is," he confessed to the commissioners, "I have not 1,000 pence of certain income." "But are you not stage manager to the opera house?" "Yes, but there is no salary attached to it." "But you teach?" "Yes, but I have no pupils." "Then you are a concert singer." "True, but I have no engagements." "At all events you have a very good salary at Drury Lane." "A very good one, but then it's never paid." Under these circumstances the tax was remitted.

Insulted Him.

Ferry—What was the matter with Johnson last night that he should get insulted when I asked him to drink? He is not a total abstainer, is he?

Wallace—It was the way you put the question. He is subject to attacks of kleptomania, and when you asked him if he "wasn't beginning to feel like taking something" he got hurt, very naturally.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The most northern lighthouse in Great Britain, the northwest tower on the coast of Shetland, is built on a rock 200 feet high, the summit of which barely affords room for the necessary buildings. The rock itself has the appearance of a gigantic iceberg.

The highest ascent ever made by man up a mountain is believed to be that of Zurbriggen on Aconcagua, one of the peaks of the Andes. He reached an altitude of between 23,000 and 24,000 feet.

If you are starting on a long walking tour, thoroughly soap the inside of your stocking heel with the common yellow soap used in laundries. This will prevent your heel blistering.

In Zululand, when the moon is at the full, objects are distinctly visible at as great a distance as seven miles. By starlight one can see to read print with ease.

All lovers are alike, and that is why they correspond.—New Orleans Picayune.

$200,000 FEE TO A LAWYER.

A. C. Burrage Said to Have Received That Sum.

Boston, Jan. 14.—A fee of $200,000, the largest fee ever paid to a lawer in this city, has been received by Albert C. Burrage from William Rockefeller in behalf of the Standard Oil Company. The check was received for services in the sale of Brookline Gas Company and other local properties to H. M. Whitsey and his associates. It is announced this afternoon that Mr. Burrage received $450,000 more for services other than legal. The statement is also made that $1,800,000 in all has been paid to various persons in counsel fees.

Mr. Burrage is a member of the '83 class at Harvard. He is 38 years old, was born at Asburnham, Mass., and has been a corporation lawyer here since 1884. He has served as councilman and on the state transit commission. When in February, 1893, the Brookline Gas Light Company made its bid to Mayor Matthews for lighting the city, it became known that Mr. Burrage was counsel for that concern. A little more than twelve months ago he was elected to the presidency of the Bay State Gas Company, with a large salary.

Jumped Sixteen Stories.

Chicago, Jan. 15—Alfred C. Greenleaf, a bookkeeper, committed suicide today by jumping from the sixteenth floor of the Masonic Temple.

Greenleaf had been out of employment for some time and becoming despondent decided to make away with himself. His first attempt was made in the Chamber of Commerce building, where he was caught in the act of jumping over the railing from the twelfth floor to the rotunda, and was ejected from the building.

Greenleaf then went to the Masonic Temple, ascended to the sixteenth floor, climbed upon the railing and jumped off into the rotunda.

His body struck a marble landing on the third floor, shattered a slab two inches think and landed on the balcony of the second floor.

The body was reduced to a mere pulp. Greenleaf's fall was witnessed by scores of people in the rotunda.

Patience.

Men came to him and called him names;
Declared he shunned the right,
And ran all kinds of bunco games;
And yet he wouldn't fight.

Contemptuously they spoke by day
And wrote of him by night;
They did not limit what they'd say;
And yet he wouldn't fight.

They jostled him when he would pose,
With rollicking delight;
And some would vow they'd pull his nose;
And yet he wouldn't fight.

He was was pugilist by trade.
Though insult made him throb,
He wouldn't fight unless he made
Big money by the job.

Removed His Stomach.

St. Louis, Jan. 15—The entire stomach of Conrad Beck, a machinist, was removed at Rebekah Hospital last Wednesday. In several ways the operation was more complicated than the similar undertaking at Zurich, in Switzerland, September 6th, of Dr. Carl Schlatter who removed the whole stomach of Anna Landis.

Each operation was impelled by a cancerous growth which menaced the patient's life. The local operation took two hours. The patient is doing well.

To Be Considered With Care.

"Say, Maud," said Mamie, "did you see Mr. Jinkels' new vase?"

"Yes. Isn't it perfectly horrid?"

"I don't know yet. I haven't found out whether it is modern and perfectly horrid, or antique and perfectly lovely."

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The Committee Expects the Co-operation of all Our Citizens.

The blanks for subscriptions to the stock of the public library have been printed and the work of securing the requisite amount of stock will begin at once.

It is worth while to recall in this connection that the shares are of a par value of $50 each and carry with them a life membership for the holder and his immediate family; that the funds will be invested in property such that the shares will be always worth par value; that the corporation, when organized, will perfect its own plans and select its own site for the library. The committee having the matter in charge hope and expect to receive the co-operation of all public-spirited citizens.

It should not be forgotten that in dollars and cents a public library is a paying investment. It always adds to the desirability of a town as a place ot residence.

"CHERRY!"

At the Academy of Music Thursday Night, January 27th.

This clever little drama, written especially for the Eagle Dramatic club, will be the next attraction at the Academy of Music.

The caste has been made up, the parts given out and nightly rehearsals are being had and our people may expect a pleasing entertainment.

During the presentation of the play and between the acts, a genuine cake walk will be given, besides a number of vocal solos, duets and musical specialties.

The entire proceeds will be turned over to the Eagle Hose company to pay a debt due on their hose and wagon.

Popular prices, 25 and 35 cents; children 15 cents.

A Financier.

J. B. Sneed, the insurance man, has hired the porter at the McAdoo to congratulate him on his recent coup as a financier. Mr. Sneed had aforetime shelled out his hard earned shekels for a block of eight shares in the company controlling the Lanston Monotype Machine. He held on to the shares while they dropped steadily and remorselessly down to 18; then he sold. That was some two weeks ago. Yesterday Mr. Sneed saw in the Baltimore Sun that the company had sold the foreign right for £500,000 or as every school boy knows about $2,000,000. And that is why Mr. Sneed secured the services of the porter.

No More Court.

The arrangement to have Judge Robinson continue court here could not be made. Governor Russell wired that according to Article 4, Section 11 of the State Constitution he did not feel empowered to assign Judge Hoke to hold the term of court at Durham and as it was Judge Robinson's term there he was forced to go. There will be no more court here until the regular term on Feb. 21.

Ice Factory Property.

The machinery of the Wharton-Jackson ice factory was sold today for a thousand dollars to D. H. King, of Winston, who runs an ice factory in that city. This includes all fixtures. It is rumored that Mr. Hinshaw who owns the building and lot wishes to rent the property to the purchaser of the machinery. We could not learn whether the deal had been made.

Still at Large.

A negro snatched a purse from one of the young ladies at the Normal College on last Saturday. He slipped quietly up and without warning seized the purse. The young lady held on for a time but the negro finally secured the purse. It contained about $2.50. The other young ladies in the party were not molested and did not lose anything.

Judge Dick's Condition.

A letter to Robert D. Douglas here from the Johns-Hopkins hospital at Baltimore says that Judge Dick's chances of recovery are excellent. The physicians in charge of the hospital have expressed the opinion that while his condition is serious they think they can bring him around alright.

Our line of coats is somewhat broken in sizes and all we have on hand we propose to close out regardless of cost. As coats change so much in style, if we wait to see what next season brings forth we may get left, so have decided to make great sacrifices.

Come and take a good look at our Underwear. Have a nice line of Corset Covers from 12 1-2c for a good cambric waist, and a nice Hamburg trimmed front and back for 25c. Our gowns that were $1 we have marked 75c; good cambric with Hamburg trimming in Hubbard and Empire style. The skirts are in plain and umbrella ruffles, handsomely trimmed and ranging in price from 75c to $1. A nice line of Drawers from 25c to $1.25.
